Before any of the 75 shoppers in a Studio City super-market could stop him, a shop-faced defense worker shot and killed his estranged wife last night. He later took his own life.

The victim of what a witness described as a "cold-blooded killing" was Mrs. Jean Weaver, 39, an attractive brunette of 4714 Palms avenue, Sherman Oaks.

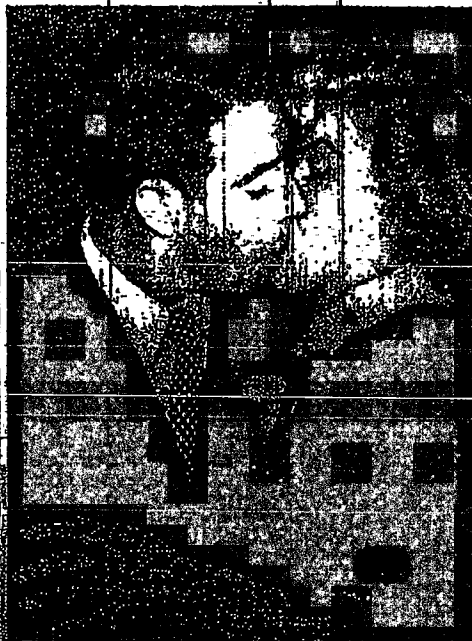

About two hours later, police found her husband, George Weaver, 35, a bookkeeper in a Burbank defense plant, dead in his apartment at 11174 Agate Vista street, North Hollywood. Mrs. Weaver was a clerk at the No. 1 stand at a market at 12314 Ventura boulevard at the corner of Chatsworth Canyon.

The checker at the No. 1 stand, later found, of 2808 West Chatsworth boulevard, Burbank, close friend of the wife, was paid for the night. Weaver was a national clerk, 39, residing at the door of the market shortly before 6 p. m.

He had a very bad temper, Mrs. Weaver told police. The market was closed at 10 p. m. Mrs. Weaver said she was in the market at 10 p. m. and saw her husband at the No. 1 stand.

Council President John S. Chisum told 600 men and women gathered for the hearing to stop part of the ordinance the measure was set to get final, however.

Chisum said the ordinance to be proposed by City Attorney Robert Brunsbach will be subject to a public hearing before the City Council on the 22nd.

The battle touched by a public health and welfare committee report recommending that the ordinance be proposed was one of the most contentious in recent Council history.

INDIA TO PUT POWS BACK WITH CAPTORS

UN, Reds Wiped at Jan. 20 Deadline by Gen. Thibault

PAN MUN JOM, Jan. 15 (Friday).—UN—India decided yesterday on its own to start turning back nearly 25,000 suspected prisoners to their captors January 20—three days ahead of the deadline—and said it either also freed them if it would violate the armistice.

In Washington, the United States Army Chief of Staff, Gen. George C. Kenney, said a similar decision "it would mean that we were not going to have any more of these prisoners on the part of the United States."

In Korea, the United Nations command prepared to begin back 12,000 Chinese and North Koreans from the line and had 10,000 more in the line.
